

PALATINE AREA ADVANCED SQUAD LEADER'S NEWSLETTER #29

Sessions 101 and 95 , (the 2 missing games from Dec were added), July 2008

SESSION 101

SAFFORD CONTINUES ROLL, KLEPACZYK'S BRITS WIN ALSO.

S23 Monty's Gamble (game 229), took place in Holland in 1944 and saw Safford's Brits quickly stop a German armored assault . Newcomer Patrick Moore (let's welcome Pat, a good player and a great guy!) let his tanks get out to far ahead of the infantry and the British 57L's took them out leaving no chance to exit the points required. The coolest thing about these guys is Moore wanted to play on just to learn the game better and Safford agreed! Way to go guys! Klepaczyk and Hallett played the same scenario (game 230) on a different table and had about the same result as Klepaczyk won. Almost all of Halletts squads were DM'd early and two tanks lost. Both Tim and Steve rolled really low.

NEW ACTION PACK GAME PLAYED "NORMANDY 1944"

The Scenario AP40 Head of the Mace (game 231) saw Stubits Germans defeat the British led by Pallam. It was a mighty long scennario to attempt on a weeknight. They got trough two turns and Joe conceded. I thought I counted 30 counters on one of the sides. Remember, even if it is a 5 turn scenario, counter density means a lot.

GERMAN STOP U.S ASSAULT

Timonen's Germans were assigned to stop Lazov's American's as they tried to exit the board in the classic scenario Gavin's Take T1. It came down to the last turn and there were just too many Germans covering the exit area and too few American's that could get there in time to exit. A hearty welcome to Don Lazov who seems like a fine addition to our club. We hope you return Don!

SESSION 95

KLEINSCHMIDT GIVES BENNETT A BLOODY NOSE

Kleinschmidt defeated Bennett in Bloody Nose J83 (game 227). Don't remember any more about this as it was back on 12/7/07 and is added here since I missed that session.

TOTSUWHATEE?

Game 228 was scenario Totsugeti featuring the Japanese and seldomm played Chinese. Stubit's attacking army defeated Pellam and I can't say more about this as It was also back in December.

And now for the awards.....

Most Determined to Learn Rookies Awards– Don Lazov, Steve Safford and Patrick Moore

Most Improved in Speed of Play

Award-Mike Stubits

Sportsmanship Award-Joe Pellam for telling Stubits that he was missing a tank.in his OB
